Active participation in ROTC is required each semester to receive in-state status. The criteria for participation in ROTC is determined and evaluated by the OSU ROTC programs each semester and confirmed to the Office of the Registrar.

Participation in ROTC is defined by the ROTC departments and will be specified in the course syllabus. The ROTC Department head will make the final determination on whether a student is a “participant” or not.

Statement of Understanding: I understand that my in-state status is contingent upon active participation in an OSU ROTC program as defined above by the OSU ROTC Department and the Office of the Registrar in accordance with Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education policy. I further understand that my participation will be re-evaluated each spring and fall semester for continued in-state status classification. Residency status for summer sessions will be based upon the previous spring semester’s evaluation.
